

CIMC – 2007/02

Taking into consideration the Law on Independent Media Commission and Broadcasting, by which was established the Council of the Independent Media Commission (IMC) and were determined the functions of the Council.

Based on the Article 7.7 of the IMC Law, according to which the Council has approved its own Rules of Procedures.

Based on the Article 5 of the IMC Council's Rules of Procedures, delegation of the responsibilities to the Chief Executive, in order to apply the law and regulations of the IMC efficiently, as well as fulfillment of the tasks foreseen by the law and regulation, IMC Council takes:

DECISION

To delegate these responsibilities to the Chief Executive of the IMC:

1. Solving of cases in agreement with the broadcasters, when it is possible as it is foreseen by the Directive No. CIMC – 2006/04 on applying sanctions toward licensees.
2. Decisions regarding requests of the broadcasters for amendment of the Second Part of the License, Technical Part; change of the broadcast channel or transmitter location and antennas in condition that such change will not affect the Fourth Part of the License, Coverage Map.
3. Issuing the decisions for ceasing interferences causes by the broadcasters, for return of transmitters and antennas in the licensed location and position and licensed channel as well as other issues mainly related to the second part of the license.
4. Decision taking of all actions-decisions regarding cases of broadcasting without license - illegal broadcasting.

5. Preparation of replies to complaints of broadcasters against the decisions of the Council and their presentation in front of the Media Appeals Board.
6. Decision-refusal of the complaints which obviously seem to be ungrounded.
7. Chief Executive or any other member of the personnel appointed by him/her will present a summary on such cases to the Council, in any meeting of the Council.
8. The Council will review the delegation of the responsibilities at least once a year.
9. The decision enters into force upon its endorsement.

Isuf Berisha

Chairman of the IMC Council

30.04.2007

date